A CLINIC WITH SINEAD HALPIN, REBECCA HOWARD, AND LYNN SYMANSKY

SINEAD was named first alternate to the US Eventing Team for the 2012 London Olympics, and recently placed 2nd at the Burghley CCI*. She is a seasoned international competitor and an ICP certified trainer with the USEA and has been riding at the Advanced level since 1999. Sinead excels in training young horses and mentoring developing riders through the sports levels.

REBECCA is a Canadian High Performance rider and trainer who rode for Canada at the 2012 London Olympics, the WEG in 2010 and the Pan American Games in 2011. Rebecca is a supportive and articulate clinician for riders of all levels and has launched countless young equine athletes into eventing careers. Rebecca currently trains out of Mere Farm in Wiltshire, England.

LYNN was part of the USA Gold Medal Team at the 2011 Pan American Games. She is a two-time top 20 finisher at Rolex 4*, and the 2010 Intermediate American Eventing Champion. An ICP instructor, Lynn brings over 20 years of experience with horses to her job as competitor, trainer and coach. Lynn trains and operates her business out of Handlen Farm in Middleburg, Virginia.
